A Prophet is Not Without Honor
Except in His Native Place
Luke 4:16-30, Matthew 13:54-58, Mark 6:1-6

As the prophets of today we should be aware that our Gospel message may be rejected especially by those who know us very well and are prejudiced by the history they have of us.

Sunday Mass Readings for 7th July 2024, Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

1 st Reading	Ezekiel 2:2-5
Responsorial Psalm	Psalms 123:1-2, 2, 3-4
2 nd Readings	2 Corinthians 12:7-10
Alleluia	Luke 4:18
Gospel	Mark 6:1-6

1st Reading - Ezekiel 2:2-5

2 As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking
3 say to me: Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day.

4 Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you. But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD!

5 And whether they heed or resist for they are a rebellious house they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalms 123:1-2, 2, 3-4

R. (2cd) Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

1 To you I lift up my eyes who are enthroned in heaven
2AB As the eyes of servants are on the hands of their masters.

R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

2BC As the eyes of a maid are on the hands of her mistress,
So are our eyes on the LORD, our God, till he have pity on us.

R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

3 Have pity on us, O LORD, have pity on us, for we are more than sated with contempt;
4 our souls are more than sated with the mockery of the arrogant, with the contempt of the proud.

R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

2nd Reading - 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

7 Brothers and sisters: That I, Paul, might not become too elated, because of the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan, to eat me, to keep me from being too elated.

8 Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it might leave me,
9 but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me.

10 Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

Alleluia - CF. Luke 4:18

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
for he sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel – Mark 6:1-6

1 Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples.

2 When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!

3 Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him.

4 Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honour except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house."

5 So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them.

6 He was amazed at their lack of faith.
