

They all ate and were satisfied,
and they picked up the fragments left over-twelve wicker baskets full.
Those who ate were about five thousand men,
not counting women and children

Sunday Mass Readings for July 28 2024, Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B
1st Reading	2 Kings 4:42-44
Responsorial Psalm	Psalms 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18
2nd Reading	Ephesians 4:1-6
Alleluia	Luke 7:16
Gospel	John 6:1-15

Responsorial Psalm - Psalms 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18

R. (cf. 16) The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

10 Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD, and let your faithful ones bless you.

11 Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

15 The eyes of all look hopefully to you, and you give them their food in due season;

16 you open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

17 The LORD is just in all his ways and holy in all his works.

16 The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

2nd Reading - Ephesians 4:1-6

Brothers and sisters:

1 I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received,

2 with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love,

3 striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace:

4 one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call;

5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism;

6 one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

Alleluia - Luke 7:16

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

16 A great prophet has risen in our midst.

God has visited his people.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel - John 6:1-15

1 Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee.

2 A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick.

3 Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples.

4 The Jewish feast of Passover was near.

1st Reading - 2 Kings 4:42-44

42 A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat."

43 But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'"

44 And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

5 When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?"

6 He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do.

7 Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little."

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him,

9 "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?"

10 Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number.

11 Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted.

12 When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted."

13 So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat.

14 When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world."

15 Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

Saint(s) For The Day

Saint Camelian of Troyes

St Camelian of Troyes was also known as Camélien. He was the spiritual student of Saint Loup of Troyes. From 478 AD until his death in 525 AD, he was the Bishop of Troyes, France for over 35 years. In 511 AD, he attended the Council of Orleans which condemned Arianism in the region.

Saint Longinus of Satala

St Longinus of Satala was one of the seven Christian brothers who were soldiers in the imperial Roman army. They were kicked out of the military, exiled, and eventually martyred in 311 AD at the sea, near the port of Pityonte now in modern-day Armenia, during the persecutions of Maximian.

Saint Acacius

St Acacius was also known as Acacio or Acazio. He was the Bishop who was tortured and martyred by being beheaded in 310 AD at Miletus, now in modern-day Turkey, during the persecutions of Licinius.

Saint Irene of Cappadocia

St Irene of Cappadocia was a very prayerful and ascetic nun at the Chrysobalanton monastery in Bithynia, now in modern-day Turkey, in the 9th century AD. She had a good reputation for wisdom and piety. This led to many seeking her help as a spiritual director. She lived to an advanced age of 103 years.
